Exhortation for worship today: Listening

In preparation for entering his sanctuary, have you calmed and quieted your soul before the Lord? Ecclesiastes 5:1-2 reminds us that there is great wisdom in being quiet in his presence, recognizing that he is God and we are not. Ask the Holy Spirit now to help quiet your thoughts and to bring stillness to your heart, that you would be ready to hear his voice in our worship today.

Today's Readings

Revelation 7:9–12

A Great Multitude from Every Nation

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

May The Peoples Praise You

You have called us out of darkest night
Into Your glorious light
That we may sing the wonders of
The risen Christ

May our every breath retell the grace
That broke into our strife
With boundless love and deepest joy
With endless life

May the peoples praise You
Let the nations be glad
All Your blessing comes that we may praise
May praise the name of Jesus

All the earth is Yours and all within Each harvest is Your own
And from Your hand we give to You
To make Christ known

May the seeds of mercy grow in us
For those who have not heard
May songs of praise build lives of grace
To spread Your word

May the peoples praise You
Let the nations be glad
All Your blessing comes that we may praise
May praise the name of Jesus

This our holy privilege to declare
Your praises and Your name
To every nation, tribe, and tongue
Your church proclaims

Holy, holy is the Lord Almighty
Worthy, worthy is the Lamb who was slain
Holy, holy is the Lord Almighty
All creation praise Your glorious name
