Exhortation For Worship Today: Singing

Do you sing out during our time of worship? Singing is a unique privilege for the people of God, and the Bible is full of commands and invitations to sing praise to the Lord. But did you know that God himself also sings? Zephaniah 3:17 says that God rejoices over us and exults over us with "loud singing!" In response to such a display, let us also loudly sing together as we praise our God!

A Song to Dwell On

As you go about your week, we encourage you to think about, dwell on, and even sing the words of this song as a reminder of what you learned and experienced in our worship today.

My Worth Is Not In What I Own

My worth is not in what I own
Not in the strength of flesh and bone
But in the costly wounds of love at the cross

My worth is not in skill or name
In win or lose in pride or shame
But in the blood of Christ that flowed at the cross

And I rejoice in my Redeemer
Greatest treasure, wellspring of my soul
And I will trust in Him no other
My soul is satisfied in Him alone

As summer flowers we fade and die
Fame youth and beauty hurry by
But life eternal calls to us at the cross

I will not boast in wealth or might
Or human wisdom's fleeting light
But I will boast in knowing Christ at the cross

And I rejoice in my Redeemer
Greatest treasure, wellspring of my soul
And I will trust in Him no other
My soul is satisfied in Him alone

Two wonders here that I confess
My worth and my unworthiness
My value fixed my ransom paid at the cross

And I rejoice in my Redeemer
Greatest treasure, wellspring of my soul
And I will trust in Him no other
My soul is satisfied in Him alone
