Exhortation For Worship Today: Singing

Do you sing out during our time of worship? Singing is a unique privilege for the people of God, and the Bible is full of commands and invitations to sing praise to the Lord. But did you know that God himself also sings? Zephaniah 3:17 says that God rejoices over us and exults over us with "loud singing!" In response to such a display, let us also loudly sing together as we praise our God!

Today's Reading

Hebrews 10:19–23

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.

A Song to Dwell On

As you go about your week, we encourage you to think about, dwell on, and even sing the words of this song as a reminder of what you learned and experienced in our worship today.

Unto Him (Jude 24-25)

There is a hope for all the suffering
A song of joy for all who weep
There is an anchor for the stumbling
A mighty fortress to the one who is in need

Unto Him who can keep us
Make us blameless in His presence
Unto Jesus, unto the only God
Unto Him who has saved us
Be all glory, be all majesty
Dominion, all authority is Yours
Right now and forevermore

Your light will overcome the darkness
The crooked roads will be made straight
The valleys lifted up the mountains brought down low
Every tongue will soon confess Your name

Unto Him who can keep us
Make us blameless in His presence
Unto Jesus, unto the only God
Unto Him who has saved us
Be all glory, be all majesty
Dominion, all authority is Yours
Right now and forevermore

Amen amen amen amen
Amen amen amen amen

Unto Him who can keep us
Make us blameless in His presence
Unto Jesus, unto the only God
Unto Him who has saved us
Be all glory, be all majesty
Dominion, all authority is Yours
Right now and forevermore
